FEMMES ON SOLANA

BY

SCRIPTFORTE

INTRODUCTION

SOLAFEMMES is a collectible NFT project by Scriptforte entered around community building, adventure, and collaboration. Each SFM resides on the Solana blockchain as a unique, non-fungible token (NFT) made up out of a unique combination of traits and underlying "DNAs".

Holding an SFM NFT makes you a member of a world and community that serves to build meaningful long-term connection through collaboration, adventure, building, and creating. The community will be fashioned toward becoming a DAO and holders of SFM will have early access to the DAO token as well as projects under the DAO.

WHAT'S NEXT

SolaFemmes was born out of our passion to drive positive change in issues we care deeply about. Our team saw the opportunity of building projects on the blockchain as a way to unlock how global communities rally together, which is why we're so excited about the NFT space.

We know it's still early days for the industry and projects like ours, but we aspire to be pioneers in building the future of NFTs with utility. With this in mind, projects like SolaFemmes have the potential to prove that this platform has the power to do real good.

Our team has the experience and capability to build SolaFemmes into a leading DAO. Our blockchain engineering, web development, graphic design & illustrations are all completely on the Scriptforte and what you see is a direct product of the founding team.

We have the tech, marketing and business background on tap which, most importantly, has been tested in the crypto sphere over the last 5 years. Combining our skill set & the influence the community can provide is what will shape the future of SolaFemmes.

We hope you'll join us on this journey.
